Dear Art:

As you know (though it may be ungracious to say so) I'm not too keen on awards and the hoopla that goes with them. However, Charlie Yanovsky is up for the Eli Lilly Award. As long as this is going to be conferred, I have no doubt that he merits it as much as anyone could.

You no doubt realize that Dave Bonner asked me to write this letter, but that didn't deter me from expressing my honest appreciation.

All best wishes,

Joshua Lederberg
